What are your thoughts on our current curriculum for RSE (relationships and sex education) and PSHCE (personal, social, health and economic) education?

63 responses

It looks to be very varied and informative and appropriate to child's age bracket.

Good

Very happy with the current curriculum.

I have no issues with it

Over all good

Good too learn

Not sure

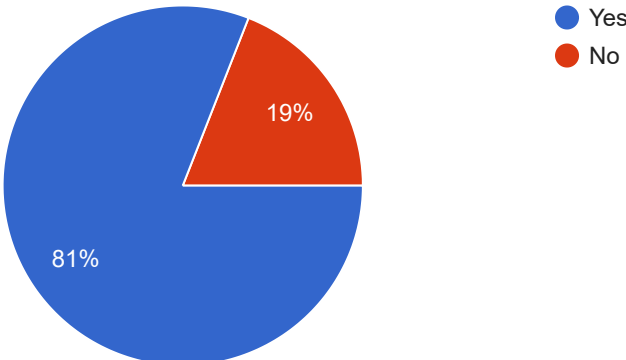

I am pleased that there is a wide range of topics covered.

Important

Do you think this curriculum meets your child's needs?

Good

Absolutely fine,

Good coverage and progression

It's fine

Seems like a good way to do it

Very positive

As a parent, do you feel like you need more information or guidance on specific topics?

Preparing your child for these tricky/embarrassing subjects

I have no idea.

Yes I want to know exactly what they are taught in the sex education

No it's fine

Is there anything else you would like to add?

No.

No everything is fab thank you

If teachers could talk to parents about RSE and ask if we are happy with them teaching our kids stuff we do not want them knowing as such a young age!

I would prefer my child not to be taught things he has no concept of. As far as I'm concerned as long as he is kind to everyone I've done my job as a parent. I don't think he needs to know details about gender identity, sex and relationships when he's so
